Hurricane evacuation tips

Know where to go and what to bring before you head out the door. A plan and plenty of supplies are the key to a safe evacuation.

What to do

Plan more than one route in case roads are blocked.

Have your bags packed and be ready to leave.

Share your plan with your loved ones.

Stay tuned to local weather news and emergency alerts.

Fully charge laptop computers and mobile devices.

Gather supplies or find a boarding facility for your family pets.

Keep important documents stored safely, either on paper or in digital form.

Don't ignore evacuation orders, because it can quickly become too late.

What to take

A week's worth of food and water (and a can opener)

A month's worth of medication and first aid supplies

Extra batteries, a flashlight, radios and a hand crank phone charger

A full tank of gas a few extra plastic gas cans

Cash on hand, in case ATMs flood or power goes out

Pet food, medicine and crates

If you can't evacuate and are forced to take shelter, use a generator outdoors and stay away from windows.
